From the Pastor.....

Church Family,

Because of who Jesus is, today is a BIG WIN!

Pastor Jim ☺

Because I love you all so much, please enjoy an extra hour of sleep this Saturday night. If you forget to change your clocks and get here at 10:30 and it is actually 9:30, you have to pay double tithe!

Fall Festival.....

We are in need of bags of candy for our annual fall festival this Saturday. If you would like to donate a bag or 2 of candy, you may drop it off at the church office or you may bring it to the event.

Fall is definitely here and as we enjoy the cool weather and look forward to the holidays, it's easy to get so busy with "Things" that we forget to take time to focus on the "things" that really matter. This Sunday is the first Sunday in November, yes November already. And on the first Sunday of each month we each have the opportunity to share the Lord's Supper. In my reading this week I was struck by a story I was reading about the Rev. George Bennard, the author of one of our beloved hymns, "The Old Rugged Cross". In his story he tells how he came to write the song and how he was "thinking and meditating on the cross of Jesus one day." He had been composing music at the piano, and his heart and mind seemed to want to dwell on the death of Christ. Then words came as an inspired answer to his own spiritual quest.

The holidays are upon us and it's going to get busy. Let me encourage you to keep your focus on the cross and the One we serve. Between now and Sunday, think about the cross and see what God brings to your mind and lays on your heart.

All for Him,

Pastor Randy

Youth Ministry.....

Checkpoint tonight, 6:15-8. We are finishing up our study on Christ and the Covenants....spoiler alert, Jesus fulfills them all (but still come and hear how).

Also, we will have our first Extreme Night on November 18. I will do my part and make this thing so awesome that it will blow your mind; you make sure and do yours and invite your friends to hear the gospel!

Baby Shower.....

All ladies are invited to a baby shower honoring Laura Hathway on November 7th from 10am - noon. The Hathway's are expecting a baby boy and are registered at Target and Babies R' Us.
